SERVANTHOOD
OF JESUS

WHY JESUS WASHED FEET

Introduction:

When Jesus had all power
in his hands, he showed us
how to best use it to build his kingdom.

Text: John 13:1-17

It was just before the Passover Feast.

Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father.

Having loved his own who were in the world, he now showed them the full extent of his love.

The evening meal was being served,
and the devil had already prompted Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray Jesus.

Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God;

Jesus replied, “You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand.”

“No,” said Peter, “you shall never wash my feet.”

Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no part with me.”

SERVANTHOOD

“Then, Lord,” Simon Peter replied, “not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!”

Jesus answered, "A person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet; his whole body is clean.

And you are clean, though not every one of you."

SERVANTHOOD

OF JESUS

For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean.

When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place.

“Do you understand what I have done for you?” he asked them.

OF JESUS

“You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and rightly so, for that is what I am.

Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet.

DISCOVERING THE

I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

OF JESUS

I tell you the truth, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him.

SERVANTHOOD

Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.
