

Why God Doesn't Owe ME Anything

Pastor Jonathan White

Text: Psalm 107:17-22

---

Introduction:

I've been asked how I feel about God allowing me to suffer physical affliction "after all you've done." I'm glad the question was raised, since it gives me an opportunity to answer it.

Yes, as a young man, I _____ against the Lord and became a _____.

Yes, I suffered _____ because of my _____.

There is no life without afflictions! Why do we blame God and not the Devil?

Yes, I drew near the _____.

God intervened repeatedly to spare my life because He valued it more than I did!

Yes, I _____ to the Lord in my _____.

Yes, God responded by _____,
and _____ me!

My _____ to God could never be _____,
only _____.

God doesn't owe me anything, but I owe God everything!

---

Conclusion:

Today I want to publicly thank God and honor Him with songs of joy!
