Why God Doesn't Owe ME Anything!

Introduction:

I've been asked how I feel about God allowing me to suffer physical affliction "after all you've done." I'm glad the question was raised, since it gives me an opportunity to answer it.

Text: Psalm 107:17-22

Some became fools through their rebellious ways and suffered affliction because of their iniquities. They loathed all food and drew near the gates of death. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

He sent out his word and healed them; he rescued them from the grave.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his unfailing love and his wonderful deeds for mankind. Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of his works with songs of joy.

Psalm 107:17-22

Yes, as a young man, I REBELLED
against the Lord and became a FOOL.

Yes, I suffered AFFLICTION because of my INIQUITY.

A person is seen falling from the edge of a cliff. The background is a hazy, overcast sky. The overall image has a faded, watermark-like appearance.

*There is no life without afflictions! Why do we blame
God and not the Devil?*

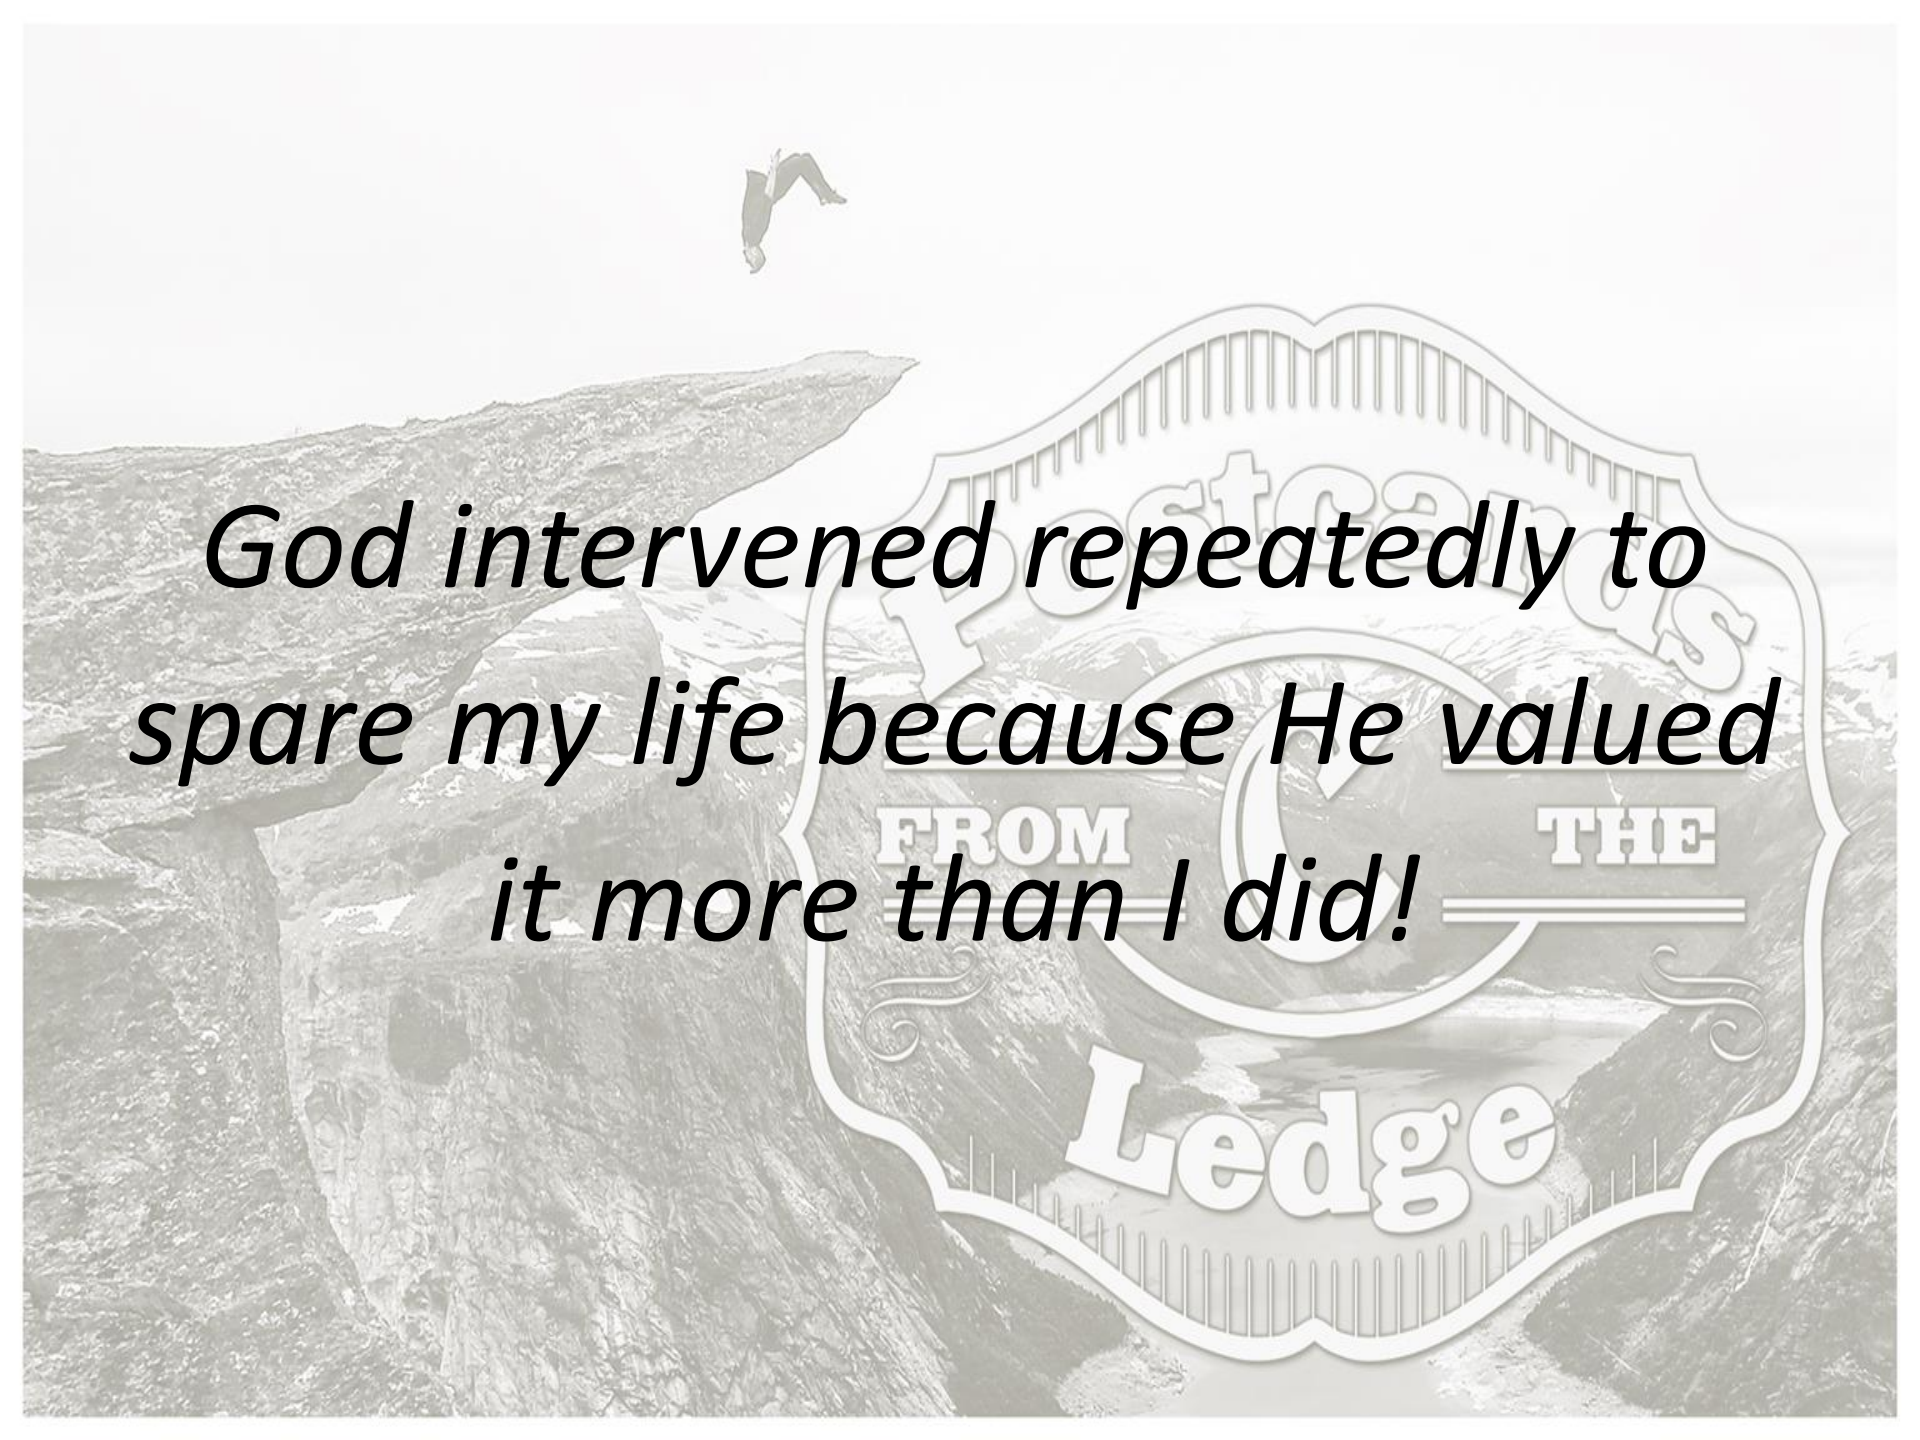

FROM

Yes, I drew near the GATES OF DEATH.

A grayscale photograph of a person falling from a cliff edge. The person is in mid-air, having just jumped or fallen from the edge of a large rock formation. The background shows a vast, rocky landscape under a bright sky. A large, decorative graphic overlay is positioned on the right side of the image, featuring a scalloped border and a central circular emblem. The text is overlaid on the image in a mix of bold, italicized serif and sans-serif fonts.

God intervened repeatedly to spare my life because He valued it more than I did!

Yes, I CRIED OUT to the Lord in my TROUBLE.

Yes, God responded by SAVING,
HEALING, and RESCUING me!

My DEBT to God could never be REPAID, only FORGIVEN.

Conclusion:

Today I want to publicly
thank God and honor Him
with songs of joy!
