

How God
TRANSFORMED
the Boaster

Introduction:

Since God's plan for transforming the world required that the transformers first be transformed themselves, it became necessary for Him to transform a self-centered braggart into a humble servant!

Text: John 21:1-22

Afterward Jesus appeared again to his disciples, by the Sea of Tiberias. It happened this way: Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples were together.

“I’m going out to fish,” Simon Peter told them, and they said, “We’ll go with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Early in the morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.

TRANSFORMED

He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?”

“No,” they answered.

He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" As soon as Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he wrapped his outer garment around him (for he had taken it off) and jumped into the water.

TRANSFORMED

The other disciples followed in the boat, towing the net full of fish, for they were not far from shore, about a hundred yards.

When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread.

TRANSFORMED

Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you have just caught.”

Simon Peter climbed aboard and dragged the net ashore. It was full of large fish, 153, but even with so many the net was not torn.

TRANSFORMED

Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.” None of the disciples dared ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord.

Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

TRANSFORMED

This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you truly love me more than these?”

TRANSFORMED

“Yes, Lord,” he said, “you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my lambs.”

Again Jesus said, “Simon son of John, do you truly love me?”

He answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Take care of my sheep.”

TRANSFORMED

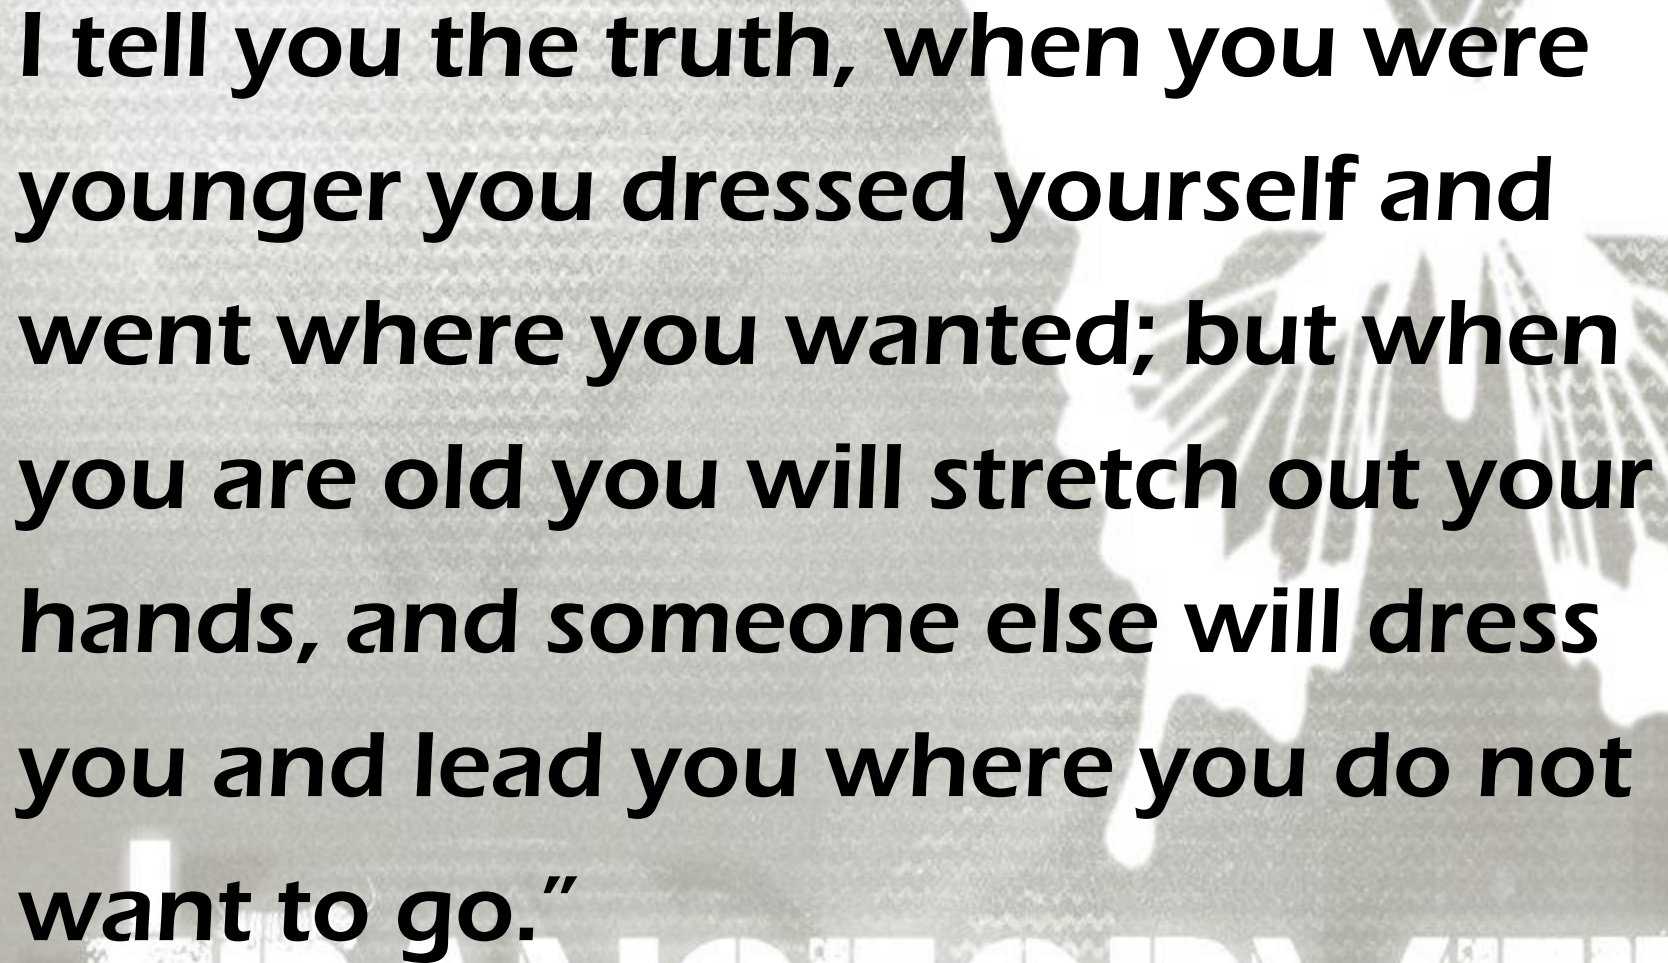

The third time he said to him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, “Do you love me?”

He said, “Lord, you know all things; you know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Feed my sheep.

TRANSFORMED

I tell you the truth, when you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go."

TRANSFORMED

Jesus said this to indicate the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. Then he said to him, “Follow me!”

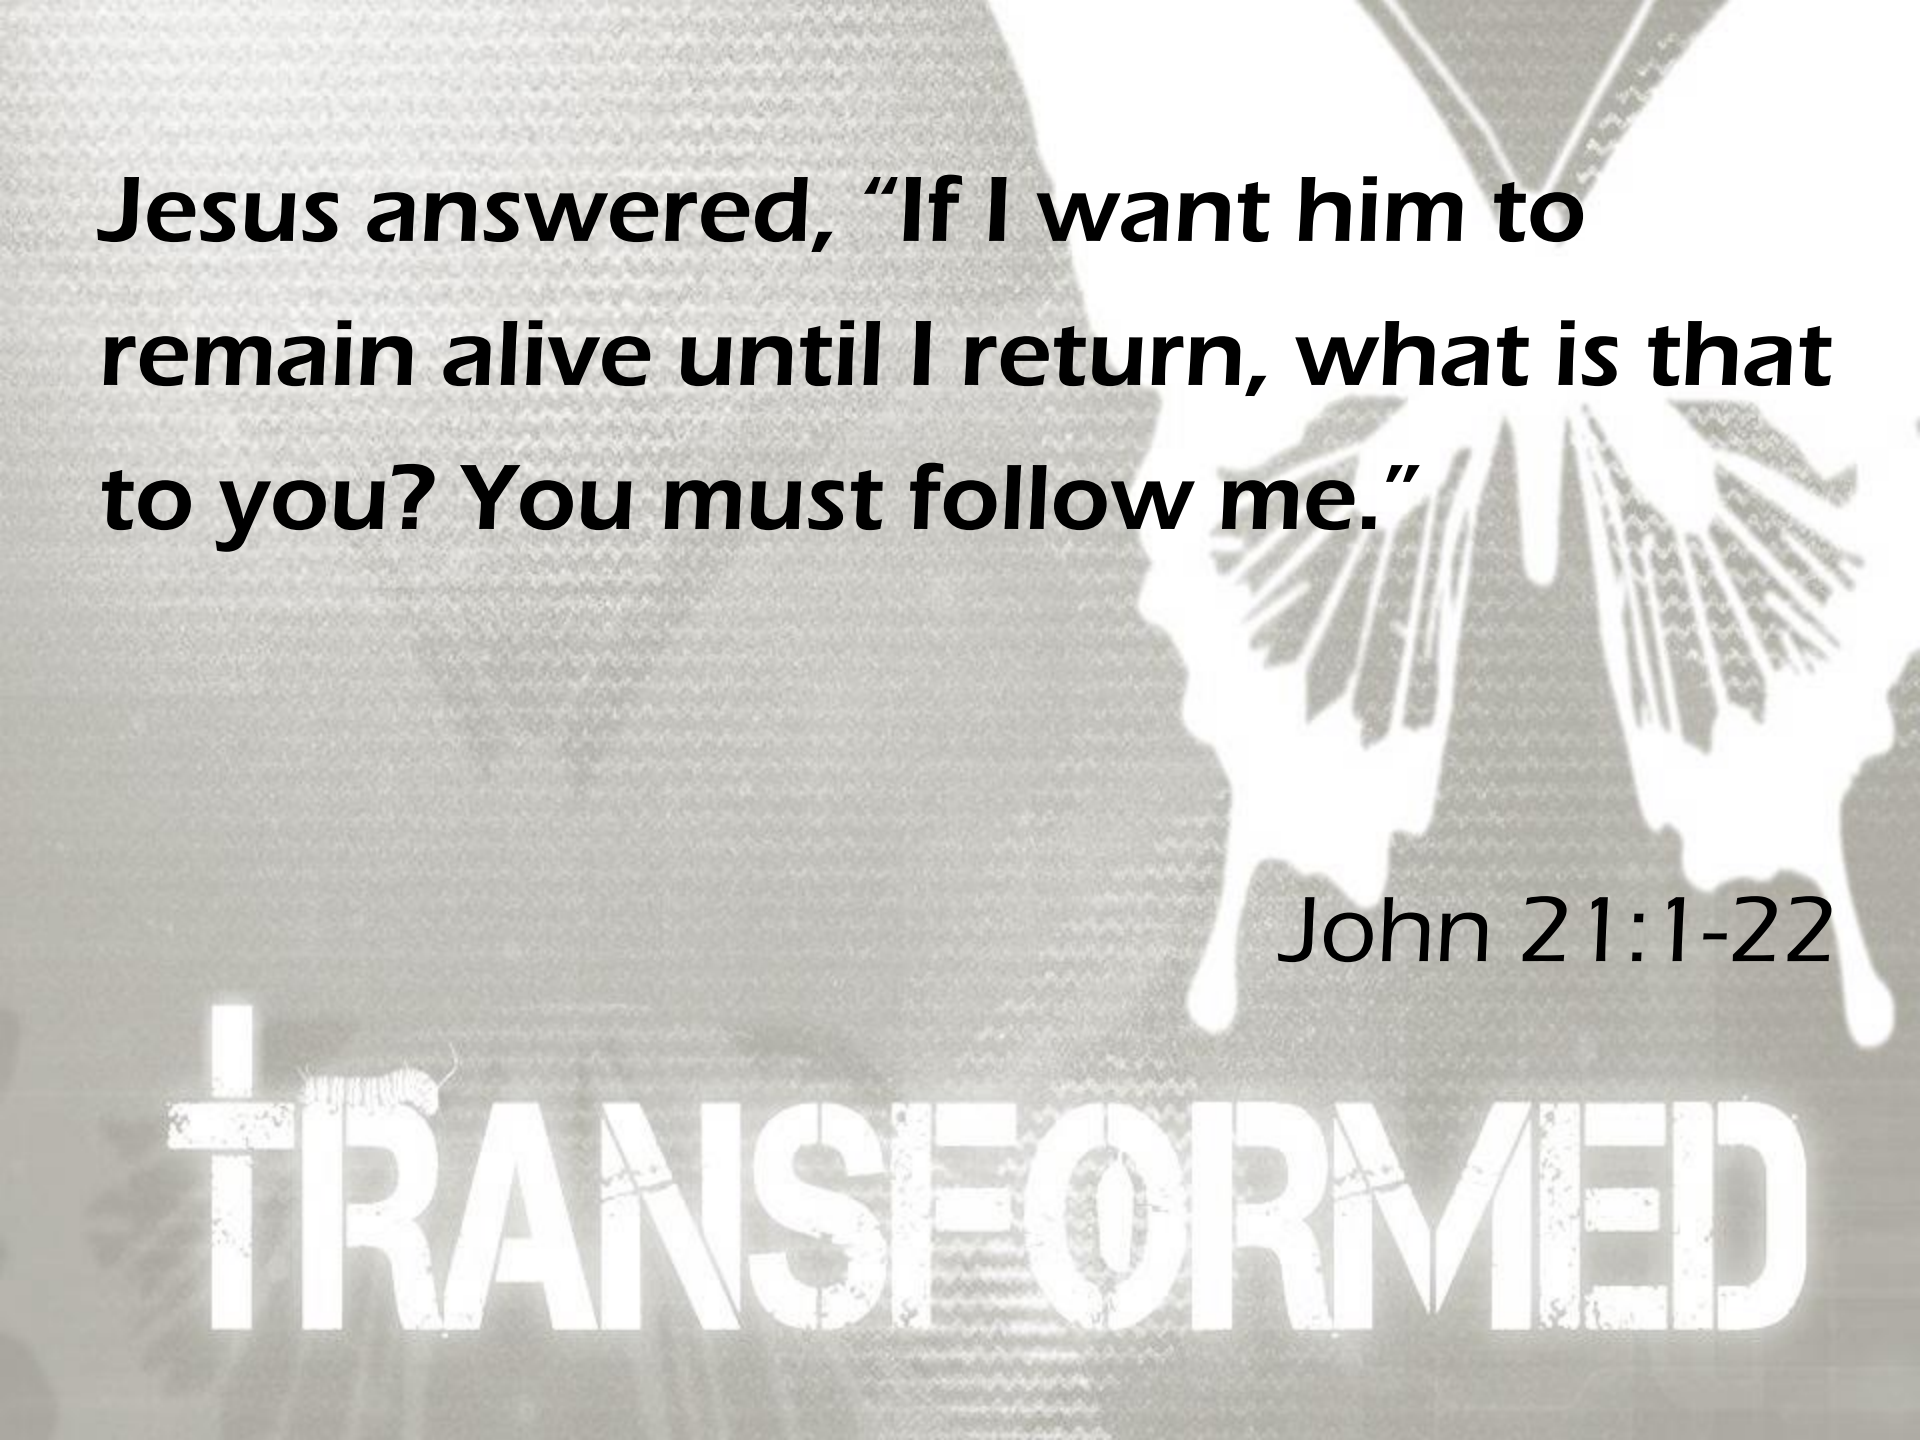

Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them.

TRANSFORMED

(This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, “Lord, who is going to betray you?”)

When Peter saw him, he asked, “Lord, what about him?”

TRANSFORMED

Jesus answered, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me.”

John 21:1-22

TRANSFORMED

Peter had greatness within him,
but he had a few major faults.

He always had to be FIRST and the CENTER of ATTENTION.

TRANSFORMED

Peter had greatness within him,
but he had a few major faults.

He sometimes crossed the line between DECISIVENESS and IMPULSIVENESS. There was that embarrassing time when he jumped out of a boat, walked on water, but then got SCARED
(Matthew 14:26-31).

Peter had greatness within him,
but he had a few major faults.

He had a hard time handling SILENCE . There was that embarrassing time when he offered to build booths for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah. The Bible simply says, “He did not know what he was saying.”

TRANSFORMED

Peter had greatness within him,
but he had a few major faults.

He seemed to feel a constant need to PROVE himself to others. He would say BOLD things, but then realize that he wasn't able to cash with his actions the checks his mouth had written!

TRANSFORMED

Peter had greatness within him,
but he had a few major faults.

He didn't always appear to UNDERSTAND his own HEART.

Peter always wanted to be popular, but it must have sometimes been difficult to be around him, because of his way of making EVERYTHING ABOUT HIMSELF!

TRANSFORMED

Peter's greatest failure took place on the night Jesus was arrested.

After saying he would follow Jesus to prison or the grave, he DENIED three times that he even knew Him.

TRANSFORMED

*When Peter denied knowing Jesus, he was alone,
confused, and frightened.
Not every hero is always a hero, and not every coward is always a coward!*

TRANSFORMED

In spite of Peter's weaknesses,
God had great plans for him!
Peter was destined to:

PREACH the first and greatest SERMON of the Church!

TRANSFORMED

In spite of Peter's weaknesses,
God had great plans for him!
Peter was destined to:

Lead the first GENTILE
CONVERTS into faith in Jesus Christ!

TRANSFORMED

In spite of Peter's weaknesses,
God had great plans for him!
Peter was destined to:

Emerge as the foremost SPOKESMAN of the early Church!

TRANSFORMED

In spite of Peter's weaknesses,
God had great plans for him!
Peter was destined to:

Follow Jesus into PRISON!

Follow Jesus to the CROSS!

TRANSFORMED

*Peter experienced TRANSFORMATION in his life, and has shown the way for many of us to experience the same great MIRACLE of God
in our own lives!*

TRANSFORMED

When Jesus asked Peter to feed his sheep, He was asking him to embrace:

His FAULTS and FAILURES.

Peter was to own them and never forget them.

TRANSFORMED

When Jesus asked Peter to feed his sheep, He was asking him to embrace:

Jesus' FORGIVENESS.

TRANSFORMED

When Jesus asked Peter to feed his sheep, He was asking him to embrace:

A life of SERVANTHOOD that put the needs of others before his own.

TRANSFORMED

When Jesus asked Peter to feed his sheep, He was asking him to embrace:

A life of SUBMISSION to the will of God, which would only require Peter to KNOW the will of God, not to UNDERSTAND it.

Conclusion:

What are the weaknesses
in YOUR life that God wants to transform?

What would He need to do
for that to happen?
