Introduction:

Not everyone who says they have received Jesus actually has!

---

*LAMBANO: To take, grasp, seize, or receive,
as well as to take to oneself something or someone.*

---

There are a number of myths about receiving Jesus.

Some people believe that they have received Jesus when they've:

Chosen to say the right _____ — it's _____
_____.

Chosen to try the _____ of Jesus — it's a _____.

Chosen to accept His offer of _____ — it's a
_____.

In truth, to receive Jesus is receive a _____!

It takes a _____ to:
_____ you in the right way.

_____ you to the right place.

_____ you at the right times.

It is impossible to enter into a genuine relationship with a person without that relationship:

_____ you.

It is impossible to enter into a genuine relationship with a person without that relationship:

_____ you.

_____ you.

_____ you.

_____ you.

Jesus' invitation is a bit like a _____ request on _____! Sometimes I accept them because I recognize and trust:

The _____.

Their _____!

Jesus' invitation is even more like a

_____!

Conclusion:

Receiving Jesus is more than a decision to give something a try.

It is a choice to live with Him!
