

Dad The Provider

Introduction:

A man's deep, natural desire to provide for the material needs of his family is a great blessing that can also become a problem to both him and those he loves.

Text: Matthew 7:9-12

Or what man is there among you who, when his son asks for a loaf, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he will not give him a snake, will he?

If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give what is good to those who ask Him!

“In everything, therefore, treat people the same way you want them to treat you, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

Matthew 7:9-12

Text: Matthew 6:19-34

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.

But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light.

Provider

But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

“No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.

“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear.

Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?

Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them.

Are you not much more valuable than they? Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life?

Dad The Provider

“And why do you worry about clothes?
See how the lilies of the field grow.
They do not labor or spin.

Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these.

Dad The

If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

Dad The Provider

So do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'

For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.

God The Provider

But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 6:19-34

*The desire to provide for his family
isn't a bad thing unless a dad:*

Is so committed to providing for his family FINANCIALLY that he ignores his SPIRITUAL responsibilities.

*The desire to provide for his family
isn't a bad thing unless a dad:*

Takes so much PRIDE in his ability to provide that he can't acknowledge that God is the source of all he has.

The desire to provide for his family isn't a bad thing unless a dad:

Bases his entire SELF-WORTH

on his ability to provide a good paycheck.

I fear that if I'm out of work for an extended period of time, you'll LEAVE me for someone who can offer you more SECURITY.

Conclusion:

Unless we learn to give God our financial worries, no amount of money will ever make us secure.
