

Why Jesus Washed Feet

Rev. Jonathan White

Text: John 13:1-17

"I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you."—vs.15

---

Introduction: When Jesus had all power in his hands, he showed us how to best use it to build his kingdom.

---

Mutual Servanthood is the model that God has chosen for human society. This model has the potential to:

Banish _____.

Alleviate _____.

Eliminate _____ and _____.

---

God's model of Mutual Servanthood relies on our:

Submission to the _____ of Jesus.

Acceptance of the responsibilities of _____.

Ability to maintain loving relationships through

_____ and _____.

---

Historically, God's church has had difficulty maintaining a Model of Mutual Servanthood because of the effects of

_____ and _____.

True servanthood is _____ --Jesus wasn't a servant because he had to be, but because he chose to be.

True servanthood is _____. It can:

Express the _____ of God.

Draw us _____ of ourselves.

Help us attain _____.

_____ the Kingdom of God on

_____.

Conclusion: Are we willing to embrace the basin and the towel of Jesus?
