

The Word of God

Rob Schroeder 2 Peter 1:21; John 1:1-3 ; 2 Timothy 3:16

There are _____ books in the Bible

There are _____ books in the O.T.

There are _____ books in the N.T.

There are _____ Chapters (Based on KJV)

There are _____ Verses (Based on KJV)

There are _____ Words (Based on KJV)

There are _____ Letters (Based on KJV)

God used _____ to write His Word. It is not a feeling, or being _____ by something _____ means _____

God used the _____ and _____ of each writer

How Big is God?

The closest star to our solar system is _____ _____ away

One light year is the distance _____ travels in one _____

There are _____ stars in our galaxy, the Milky Way and it is _____ across

There are _____ of _____ in the universe

The diameter of the universe is believed to have a diameter of _____ God is _____ which means He is _____ Why did He write His Word for us?

Above all creation _____ are His greatest treasure

Of all things He made and COULD do, He wants a _____ _____ with me

His Word shows us how to _____ Him, _____ Him, and have a _____ with Him

Or His Word is God breathed for _____, to find out what
_____, how to _____
_____ and how to _____

Conclusion

God wants me to know _____

God wants to know _____

God wants me to live a _____ life for Him

What an awesome and mighty privilege it is to know and be known by God, the Creator of ALL things, in a personal way!!