

The Day After Christmas

Rev. Jonathan White

Text: Romans 6:4; 2 Corinthians 5:17

Introduction: The day after Christmas has always seemed a bit awkward to me. I find myself thinking, “Well, that was nice, but now what?” You can have similar feelings when you have recently received Christ as your Savior.

You may wonder, “What just happened?” Well, you have now been:

_____ — your _____ have been

_____!

_____ — you have been _____!

_____ — God has started the work of _____ your life!

When you have first come to faith in Jesus Christ, it is important that you:

Show some _____ for what God has done for you.

_____ and _____ your new faith in Christ!

Be _____ about your _____, but _____ in your _____!

Start studying the _____.

Make an effort to hang out with your _____ and _____ — the new ones

Conclusion:

Coming to faith in Christ is both an ending and a beginning!
