

The Danger of a Depraved Mind

Rev. Jonathan White

Text: Romans 1:18-32

Introduction:

Sometimes we see and recognize danger
far too late to avoid disaster!

In this passage, Paul reveals that the descent into depravity is an accelerating process that begins with a suppression of the truth and ends in complete spiritual and moral bankruptcy!

5 Downward Steps on the Descent to Hell

A suppressing of the _____ that leads to the death of a spirit of awe and gratitude.

A misdirection of _____ from the Creator to the things He has created.

A desire for _____ in ways which are
_____.

A craving for ever-increasing _____ that continually crosses old boundaries of _____ and
_____.

A total loss of the capacity to distinguish between _____ and _____.

When a person's thoughts have become _____,
and when their _____ have been deadened, how will they _____ their way to God?

The Old-Timers used to say that, "Sin will _____ you further than you intend to _____,
you longer than you intend to _____, and _____ you more than you intend to _____."

A FEW EXAMPLES

Human monsters don't _____ to end up where they do, but rather are patiently and carefully _____!

Conclusion:

You don't CONTROL sin; sin controls YOU!
