Text: Romans 2:7; Romans 2:1-8; Mark 3:1-6;
Mark 16:9-14; Acts 7:51; John 14:26

Introduction: Stubbornness, like arrogance, is a form of pride that has a high price.

Stubbornness of the right kind will lead you to _____ (Romans 2:7).

Stubbornness of the wrong kind will keep you _____ in _____ (Romans 2:1-8).

Stubbornness of the wrong kind will _____ you to the _____ (Mark 3:1-6, 16:9-14).

Stubbornness of the wrong kind will cause you to _____ the Holy Spirit (Acts 7:51).

Stubbornness of the wrong kind will keep from you the _____ of the Holy Spirit (John 14:26).

Conclusion:

Not all spiritual growth comes through an activation of our will. Much comes when we yield our will!
