

The Power of Constant Prayer

Pastor Jonathan White

Text: I Thessalonians 5:16-18 (NIV)

Introduction:

It may seem as if God has advised us to do the impossible in advising us to pray continually, but when we learn just how this can be done, it can revolutionize our walk with God!

Maintaining a continual state of prayerfulness is the key to my ability to remain:

- _____.
- _____.

HOW IMPORTANT THESE ATTITUDES OF THE MIND AND HEART ARE!

To pray continually means that God can often be present with me below the level of my consciousness.

- I can _____ continually, can't I?
- I can _____ about something, can't I?
- I can have an _____ in my thoughts that consistently draws me back after a period of _____
— what will the _____ be?

Since God is always with me, I should:

- Keep myself in a condition that I am constantly

_____ to talk to God.

- Respond immediately with _____ prayer

whenever the Holy Spirit _____ me.

- Pray at _____ intervals throughout the day, so that thoughts of God are _____ being introduced to my mind.

---

Conclusion:

Prayer is how I interact with the spiritual world. Without it, my mind and heart will be chronically divided!
